Declaration by Applicant

The Working Time Regulations 1998

Regulations on Working Time

The Working Time Regulations were introduced on 1st October 1998 and working hours in the UK are now governed by statute. Department working practices and procedures are therefore organised to comply with the following legal requirements. (Average hours are normally calculated over a 17 week period.)

- Average weekly working hours are limited to 48 hours
- Average daily night working hours are limited to 8 hours
- Minimum daily, weekly and in-work rest breaks requirements
- Minimum requirements for annual leave.

Department Policy and Procedures

The legislation was introduced as a health and safety measure. Employers who do not comply with the limits to working time will be committing a criminal offence. Working practices in the department are therefore monitored to ensure that generally, working hours remain well within legal limits.

Employers are required to take 'all responsible steps' to ensure that the limits to working time are not exceeded. This includes inquiring whether a person is working elsewhere. All applicants are therefore asked to declare all other employment.

This declaration will not prejudice your application

Please note:

- If you do have other job(s), your application will still be assessed on your suitability to do the job you are applying for. At this stage, any other jobs you declare will be ignored.
- If you are selected for interview the implications will be carefully discussed with you. The department may consider it necessary to discuss the situation with your other employer(s) but only with your permission.
- Depending on the overall situation and the outcome of discussions with you, the department would have the following options:
 - not to offer you the appointment
 - offer the appointment on reduced hours
 - offer the appointment providing the other work is relinquished (or the hours reduced)
 - offer the appointment and enter into an agreement with you to opt out of the weekly working time limit.

Employment which you intend to continue if successfully appointed to the post applied for.

Your application cannot be processed if you do not return this form.

At the interview you will be asked if you have any disability which would affect your ability to do the job, and, in compliance with the Disability Discrimination Act 1995, you will be asked what reasonable adjustments we might arrange to assist you.

Guidance on your application

Your application form is an important part of our recruitment process – it is how we get to know you and assess your ability to do the job. It enables us to decide whether or not to shortlist you for interview and therefore plays a vital role in the recruitment process.

We do not take into account any previous applications or prior knowledge of you. We also do not accept Curriculum Vitae (CV's) and ask all applicants to complete our application form. This is in line with our Equal Opportunities Policy and ensures that information about candidates is presented in a standard format. The exception to this is candidates with a disability where a CV might be the most convenient method of application. Applications from disabled candidates will also be accepted in braille, on cassette or on the Council's large type application form.

How we shortlist

When we shortlist, we look at your experience, skills, knowledge, attainment and other information in line with the job description and person specification. You will find copies of these in your job pack.

The job description outlines the main responsibilities and duties of the post, and a person specification outlines the skills, abilities, experience and qualifications that you require to fulfil these duties.

Please ensure you read the job description and person specification before you begin to complete the form so you have in mind the skills and knowledge we are looking for. Applicants who are disabled under the provisions of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 will be automatically shortlisted provided they meet the essential qualifications and experience required by the post.

How to complete your application form

General hints

- Read the job description and person specification before you start
- Use black ink so we can clearly photocopy forms for shortlisting and interviewing
- Complete all sections of the form as fully as possible
- Clearly label and number any continuation sheets with your name and the post you are applying for and list the number of attachments on the main application form. This allows us to check we have all the information you want us to have before we shortlist.
- Keep a copy of the application form for your own records.

'Why are you applying for this job?'

- This is the most important part of the form and is your opportunity to show us how you meet the person specification and job description i.e. how your skills, knowledge and experience match those we require and how they will enable you to successfully do the job.
- Use the criteria in the person specification as headings and give examples of your experience and skills under each heading.
- You can use skills you have gained from community and voluntary work, leisure interests and your home life, as well as those from your past and present employment.
- Use clearly labelled continuation pages if required.

- Check you have demonstrated how you meet all the essential requirements on the person specification. The shortlisting panel cannot guess or make assumptions about your work experience.
- Remember that we use the job description and person specification to shortlist – if you do not therefore clearly demonstrate how you meet the essential criteria in the person specification – it is unlikely that you will be shortlisted to interview.

References (Page 7)

We will contact your references prior to interview unless you have ticked the boxes on the application form indicating not to. References will not be used as part of the interview process, but will be taken into account if you are offered the post. We must receive two satisfactory references about you before we can formally offer you the post.

Attendance (Page 7)

Please list your absences in the past 12 months. Absences related to a disability, or to a previous stress condition should not be included in the Attendance Section of the Application Form. Please record them on an information sheet, place it in a separate sealed envelope and mark it 'Confidential - For the attention of the Personnel Officer'

"Confidential - for the attention of the Personnel Officer"

All information provided on a "Confidential - for the attention of the personnel officer" basis is usually withheld from the recruitment and selection panel until shortlisting is complete. The information is made available to the panel for the interview and you should anticipate being asked about it.

Rehabilitation of Offenders

The Council requires all applicants to disclose criminal convictions. Some posts require information relating to both "spent" and "unspent" convictions whereas other posts require "unspent" information only. Applicants who have been shortlisted for posts involving regular contact with children or vulnerable adults will be required to apply for either a standard or enhanced disclosure from the Criminal Records Bureau. See the enclosed "Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 Guidance Notes" (below).

Declaration of Interests

Direct or indirect canvassing of Councillors or Senior Officers by, or on behalf of yourself is forbidden. If you are related to a Councillor or Senior Officer record the details in a sealed envelope and mark it "Confidential - For the attention of the Personnel Officer".

Equal Opportunities in Employment Monitoring Form

The Council has an Equal Opportunities in Employment Policy. One of its aims is to ensure that unfair discrimination does not occur in recruitment and in order to help the Council monitor the effectiveness of this Policy (and for no other reason) an Equal Opportunities in Employment Monitoring Form is attached to the Application Form. Completion of this will help us to ensure that we provide the highest standard of service to job applicants.

Disability Guidance

The Disability Discrimination Act 1995 states that "a person has a disability for the purposes of this Act if he has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities".

What do I do now?

Once your application form is completed and you are happy that you have provided all the information we require to shortlist, please send your application to the address shown on the application form. Please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope or postcard if you would like receipt of your application form to be acknowledged.

Other important information...

Data Protection Statement

Under the Data Protection Act 1998, the information you provide in your job application form will be treated confidentially at all times and will only be disclosed to personnel involved in the recruitment process. Recruitment decisions will be made by a staff panel and not solely on the basis of automated decision making. If you accept a post with the County Council, your personal information will be held for purposes relating to your Contract of Employment.

Security safeguards apply to both manual and computerised information, and only relevant personnel and managerial staff can access your information. If your application is unsuccessful, your application form and any other information we hold about you will usually be destroyed after six months. Personal information for all applicants may be retained for monitoring and future recruitment purposes.

Evidence of Qualifications

If invited to interview, you will be required to provide evidence to prove that you hold the qualifications, which are relevant to the appointment. If the post requires you to travel on official business you will be required to produce your drivers licence and certificate of insurance to your manager for inspection upon appointment.

Health Statement

Where an appointment is offered, you will be required to complete a health questionnaire which must be cleared by the County Council's Occupational Health Adviser prior to taking up your post. You may also be required to have a medical examination or give permission for the Occupational Health Adviser to contact your GP for a report. Staff moving internally will be required to complete a health questionnaire if the new post is significantly different.

Asylum and Immigration Act 1996

It is a criminal offence to employ persons whose immigration status prevents them from working in this country. The Act does not affect citizens of the UK, Ireland, European Economic Area and the Commonwealth, provided they have the right to abode in the UK.

You will be required, if appointed, to provide evidence that you are entitled to work in this country. Official confirmation of your national insurance number on a P45, P60, plastic NI number card, former payslip or a letter from the Inland Revenue or other Government Department can be provided; alternatively, a list of acceptable documents is available on request.

Applications to Job Share

If you are applying on a job share basis, please indicate this on the application form, and as far as possible, the working sessions that you would prefer. This enables us to match you with other job share applicants who have indicated complementary working sessions. Please remember that the more you restrict the working sessions available to you, the more difficult it will be for us to find you a partner. Therefore, try and be as flexible as possible.

Interview Expenses

The County Council does not normally pay interview expenses. We do, however, recognise that there may be occasions when candidates require assistance. Please contact the Personnel Section if you require such assistance, before incurring any expense.

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (1974): Guidance Notes

Please read these guidance notes carefully before completing the section on the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 on the Application Form.

Disclosure of Criminal Convictions

Under this Act you are required to disclose details of previous convictions, until a certain length of time passes and the convictions become “spent”.

Under the above Act you do not need to provide details about either minor motoring offences or previous convictions once they become “spent”. This includes the date you sign the application form.

Please note the following when considering whether a conviction is spent:-

- i. “spent” periods are halved if the conviction took place when you were aged 17 or less;
- ii. a sentence of longer than 2½ years in prison will never become “spent”;
- iii. a sentence of preventive detention and a sentence of detention during Her Majesty’s pleasure is never “spent”; or
- iv. it is immaterial for the process of calculating a “spent” conviction whether the sentence is suspended or not.

The information you provide will be treated strictly confidentially. Having a conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment. This will depend on the circumstances and background to the offence(s) which will be taken into account when considering how suitable you are for the type of work involved, should your application be successful.

Failure to disclose any “unspent” convictions may result in the offer of employment being withdrawn. If already appointed, you could be dismissed without notice.

Please see the list below which details the rehabilitation periods for criminal convictions.

Criminal Convictions and Time Periods before Becoming “Spent”

For dismissal from Her Majesty's Service.	7 years
