

Spend time looking after our own environment. Can you find other examples of how air resistance opposes gravity in nature. Whilst you are walking you could take a bag and litter pick too.	Research information about a Mega City of your choice and present your information in any way you like. You could include the population and the continent it is located in.	Write a quiz about Frida Kahol to test your family and friends. Remember you must know the answers.	Create 'Did you know?' fact cards about gravity, air resistance and the work of Isaac Newton. (minimum of 10)
Create your own picture which includes a vanishing point.	Write a book review on Wonder by R.J Palacio. You could include a new front cover.	Research other artists who used surrealism in their work. Can you recreate any of their work?	Create a warmup routine which could be used in a PE lesson.
	What 'rules' do you live your life by? Create your own poster which could show your own precepts.	Produce an explanation for a younger child to show how a computer sends a message from one house to another.	